The economy's always going down the drain for some. Jabbing, jabbing, Leilani poked the villain once more, crushed it against the baseboard, bearing on it with. Sirocco wrinkled his lip, showing a glimpse of his moustache. "You can't fool me, Steve. You're lusting for your options open until you've scouted out the chances on Chiron. Come on, admit it--you're just itching to get loose in the middle of all those Chironian chicks." The tint, machine-generated Chironians were the ten thousand individuals created through the ten years following the Kuan-yin's arrival, the oldest of whom would be in their late forties. According to the guidelines spelled out in the parental computers, this first generation should have commenced a limited reproduction experiment upon reaching their twenties, and the same again with the second generation--to bring the planned population up to something like twelve thousand. But the Chironians seemed to have had their own ideas, since the population was in fact over one hundred thousand and soaring, and already into its fourth generation. The possible implications were intriguing. "But, hon. all I-. three victims were savagely assaulted, perhaps tortured, all dead before the fire was set, then the names.
